

HELLENIC REPUBLIC
CAPITAL MARKET COMMISSION

ANNOUNCEMENT– WARNING

Athens, 19 October 2026

The Hellenic Capital Market Commission draws investors' attention to the website "blockchain-networks.net".

The website, accessible at <https://blockchain-networks.net>, is being used for unknown persons to communicate with investors who have suffered financial losses from online investment fraud schemes, purportedly for the purpose of recovering such losses.

The website states: "A safe place for frozen funds BlockchainNetwork is a safe platform to hold frozen funds with clear records, steady oversight and a secure digital ledger." However, the website does not provide any information regarding the legal entity that operates or manages it.

The Hellenic Capital Market Commission recommends that investors exercise particular caution, independently verify, through official and reliable sources, the identity of persons and entities contacting them, and refrain from making payments or disclosing personal details or banking information to unknown persons who claim that they can recover lost funds.
