

HELLENIC REPUBLIC
CAPITAL MARKET COMMISSION

ANNOUNCEMENT

Athens, 13 September 2024

Warning regarding telephone calls from persons falsely claiming to be executives of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission

The Hellenic Capital Market Commission informs the public that it has become aware of persons who are claiming to be executives of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission and are calling citizens from telephone numbers with a foreign prefix, stating that they found their details from the Greek Cyber Crime Division and informing them of alleged breaches of their accounts and of monetary losses.

We would like to point out that these persons are not related to the Hellenic Capital Market Commission, and they are not its executives or representatives. The Hellenic Capital Market Commission will never ask you for information related to your bank accounts.

The Hellenic Capital Market Commission advises investors to be particularly careful, not share any personal information (identity information, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, bank account and debit or credit card numbers, etc.) with persons unknown to them, and not send them money under any circumstances.
